

Note to self - stop asking intense people for help. All I wanted was a blog, just a nice, simple straight-forward blog where I could express the occasional opinion and post a photo of a kitten. How hard can that be? Oh no, Little Miss Intensey-Pants next door decided that I needed a blog where I poured out all of my emotions in real-time to the entire world via satellite. It didn't matter how much I protested, she had a vision and I was going to achieve her vision - or else. It's a battle of wills that I might just lose - I know the world needs one more opportunity to see cute kittens dangling from Christmas trees, but L-MIP insists I should be baring my soul, pouring out my heart - and giving away my innermost secrets. Let the battle commence.
