

Where's the frog? Where's the pirate? Where are the ducks? Challenge little ones to spot and name each object on the page while building language skills too. This series of books challenges kids to open their eyes and find special hidden treasures. All of the objects in the colored boxes are hiding inside each picture. Can kids spy them? Can they name each one? Whether they're searching for a boat full of penguins in the ocean or spying dinosaurs in a prehistoric scene, children will have fun discovering new words with these big, bold, and brightly illustrated books.
