

A former Army officer and a grizzled veteran police detective meet in a chance encounter which sets them off down the road towards partnership. The time they spend together closing cases in Homicide Unit forges a bond between them, inspiring the kind of friendship and respect that lasts a lifetime. Yet all good things must come to an end, and their collaboration on the Job comes full circle within this volume. In Predawn Rescue ex-Lieutenant Griffon Dire sets out to stop a brutal assault and makes a friend in the bargain. Day Breaks follows the freshly-assigned Detective Dire on his first case with friend and mentor, Detective Hargold Thief. The events of Noon High cause Dire to question what a reasonable motive for murder might truly be. In the novella Sunset Ride, Detective Thief is running out of time to bring his oldest friend's killer to justice, and Griffon finds himself compelled to do anything to help his partner. Even if what needs to be done means stepping over lines that ought not be crossed. A frustrated Griffon has a chance encounter on Deads Night which leads to his pursuit of the perpetrators of an assault on the police; yet in the heat of the chase Dire finds himself drawn into the one place in the city he can't call for help. Finally, a newly-retired Thief and Hammersmith watchtowers Captain Trawler drown their Midnight Sorrows and hatch a plan to bring Griffon back under control. This bundle consists of the first four Dire Calls volumes: Day Breaks, Noon High, Sunset Ride, and Deads Night. Dire Calls shorts offer readers a quick fix of police procedural action situated in the fantastic world of author Mathew Reuthers Thousand Kingdoms.
